DEPUTY SHERIFF EMBRY HURT IN RUNAWAY

Popular Officer Has His Scalp Torn Open When Horse Jumps And Throws His Against Stump

Deputy Sheriff Will S. Embry had a very narrow escape from death Tuesday afternoon, when his horse ran away near the Deep Well woods on the Crab Orchard pike, about seven miles from town. He was thrown out of the buggy, and against a stump at the side of the road. A jagged piece of the stump almost scalped him. It tore a long gash in his head, from his foreead back to his crown, as neatly as a barber would part his hair. His neck was also badly cut and sprained, and when picked up by rescuers soon afterward, he was unconscious and in bad shape. For a time it was feared that he was internally injured, but after his wounds had been dressed, and a careful examnation made, it was disclosed that he was not in a dangerous condition-unless complications should develop-although very painfully injured. A small negro boy who had been riding with Mr. Embry to show the officer where a certain party lived, was also badly hurt, having the skin torn completely off his right thumb.

The runaway and accident happened as Mr. Embry was returning home. On the way to his destination they had passed a saw mill in operation, but the horse he was driving had paid practically no attention to it, and passing it on the return, Mr. Embry did not think it necessary to watch the horse unusually close. Just as the vehicle came abreast of the mill, however, en route to Cincinnati. the engine popped off steam, and with a great leap, the horse jumped to the side of the road and started to bolt into the woods. Mr. Embry his head striking the stump, which tore his scalp, and rendered him unconscious. The animal managed to of December, break loose from the vehicle, but was caucht before he could do any resting as easy as possible under

Mr. Embry was carried to the home of Ed Lee, a negro, nearby, where everything possible was done for him by those there, and Mr. J. C. McClary, who happened to be in that section at that time. Dr. Edmiston was called from Crab Orchard and dressed his injuries and Sheriff McCarty went after him in automobile with local physicians and brought him home where he is now damage to himself. the circumstances.
